Policies & Services

Once the booking request is completed, we forward it to the landlord, who has 48 working hours to accept or reject.

If the landlord accepts your booking, we will confirm it to you by email and share each other's contact details with both you and the landlord; upon your arrival in the property, you will have 24h hours to notify us of your decision of withdrawal upon some major issues with the accommodation.

If the landlord does not accept your booking, we will offer you similar accommodations.
No money will be taken from your account unless the landlord accepts your booking request.
