

Kaunas University of Technology Faculty of Informatics invites VISITING LECTURERS to teach and share their knowledge and experience with the future specialists in the following IT fields:

- object oriented programming and software testing;
- computer networks and security;
- databases and data mining;
- virtualisation and cloud computing.

Why is it worth joining our team?

- Kaunas University of Technology is ranked No. 1 technical university in Lithuania and is ranked among top 4 % in the world (QS, THE rankings);
- Kaunas and Lithuania are called the Baltic IT hub;
- you will be working in a team of leading scientists and researchers in the field of IT;
- you will have the opportunity to work and do research using the latest equipment and software in modern laboratories;
- you will get to know the most promising students in IT;
- you will enjoy the benefits of a flexible schedule.

requirements

- a Master's degree or higher;
- teaching experience at a university;
- English requirements: CEFR C1, IELTS ≥ 6.0 , or equivalent.

EMPLOYMENT: a visiting lecturer may be employed as a part-time assistant lecturer, a lecturer, an associated professor or a professor depending on the academic qualification. Preferred period: min. 3 months. Flexible employment conditions.

Graduates of KTU Faculty of Informatics are amongst the most demanded specialists in the entire region. The main reasons behind the success of the Faculty – a highly motivated and qualified team of academics, partnership with business and excellent infrastructure.

If you are interested in the above mentioned position, please do not hesitate to contact us by email: cv@ktu.lt